GO FLY A KITE!

Greenwich Arts Council's Annual Kite Flying Festival
SATURDAY, APRIL 14, 1 pm
(raindate, Sunday, April 15, 2 pm)

On Saturday, April 14, it's up, up and away with the annual Kite Flying Festival sponsored by the Greenwich Arts Council, the Town of Greenwich Dept. of Parks & Recreation, in partnership once again with McDonalds and the educational toy store, Smart Kids'.

All participants in this springtime celebration are encouraged to bring kites of all shapes and sizes, made of paper, plastic or fabric. All flyers will receive gift certificates from McDonalds and be eligible for a drawing for gift certificates from Smart Kids'.

As in years past, Old Greenwich resident David Weiss and friends will provide kiteboarding demonstrations. For the uninitiated, the principals behind kiteboarding are similar to those of windsurfing, except you use a kite instead of a sail to catch the wind and propel you over the waves. It is both fascinating to thrilling to behold.

So hope for sunny skies and gentle breezes at Tod's Point, Saturday, April 14 at 1 pm. For more information, call the Greenwich Arts Council office at 622-3998, log on to our website at www.greenwicharts.org, or call the Dept. of Parks & Recreation at 622-6485.

The Greenwich Arts Council promotes the arts by nurturing artists and building audiences, bringing the arts to the community and the community to the arts.
