

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: March 27, 2008

CONTACT: Frank Juliano, Executive Director, Greenwich Arts Council 203-862-6750
Cathie Fuhrmann, Assistant to the Director

Greenwich Arts Council Played Host to RTM Members

As a gesture to introduce their Town partners to the Greenwich Arts Council, the GAC held a "meet & greet" reception for members of the Town's RTM Committee on Wednesday evening, March 26, in their "home" at 299 Greenwich Avenue. Over 75 RTM members were joined by Arts Council board members, advisors, and staff for champagne and informal tours of the facility.

In a brief address to the assembled guests, the Greenwich Arts Council's Executive Director, Frank Juliano, extended a warm and enthusiastic welcome. "We are here thanks to the support and encouragement of our Town partners," said Juliano. "You all play a key role in the 35 year successful history of the Greenwich Arts Council and we are especially grateful."

Juliano went on to explain the impressive outreach and effect the Arts Council has on the community thanks to the many constituent groups who share the Greenwich Avenue building. "Literally tens of thousands of people, artists, children, teachers, and families are affected each year by the many programs and services offered."

It is the intention and hope that this evening will just be one of many in which Town partners can experience and share in the many events offered by the Greenwich Arts Council.

For more information about the Greenwich Arts Council and to inquire about volunteer opportunities, call 203-862-6750 or log on to www.greenwicharts.org.

The Greenwich Arts Council promotes the arts by nurturing artists and building audiences, bringing the arts to the community and the community to the arts.

Photo 1. caption: RTM members, Valerie Stauffer (District 7), Joan Caldwell (District 10), and Louisa Stone (District 10).

Photo 2., caption: RTM members mingle with GAC board members and advisors.