One More Week to Enjoy Art to the Avenue

This is the last full week to experience Greenwich Arts Council's signature program, Art to the Avenue. For those of you who haven't made it yet, you have until Monday, May 26 to view the work of over 140 participating artists. Imagine strolling down Greenwich Avenue and discovering a potential Picasso, an amateur Ansel Adams or maybe even a fledgling Van Gogh! So what are you waiting for? See you on the avenue.

The Greenwich Arts Council's Art to the Avenue is made possible through the hard work of the Art to the Avenue committee headed by Sonja Blom, and with special thanks to the generous support of People's United Bank, Prudential Connecticut Realty, Beam & Barre, Kristin & Francis Casale, NRDC Equity Partners, Delamar Greenwich Harbor, Design Within Reach, Thomas Henkelmann - Homestead Inn, Flow of Art Gallery, Richards of Greenwich, and UBS Financial Services, Inc. We also thank Greenwich Magazine, the Greenwich Post, Le Wine Shop, Village Bagels on the Avenue, Smart Kids' Toys, WSTC Cox Radio, the CT Commission on Culture & Tourism, and especially our long time Art to the Avenue partners, the Greenwich Time.

Further information is available by calling the Greenwich Arts Council at 203-862-6750 or by logging onto www.greenwicharts.org and clicking on to the Art to the Avenue link. The Greenwich Arts Council promotes the arts by nurturing artists and building audiences, bringing the arts to the community and the community to the arts.
